

VICTORIA TACOS

TACO ASSEMBLY SPECIALIST

About Victoria Tacos

Victoria Tacos started off as a pop-up in the summer of 2020, bringing an international spin to tacos in Berlin. We strive to be a place that offers bold flavors and warm service within a vibrant atmosphere. Everything we do is with the intention of pushing against the status quo, taking cross-cultural inspirations to create a menu, team and space that reflects this incredibly eclectic city.

We are looking for hardworking, dedicated people who always manage to keep a positive attitude. We are building a team of individuals who embrace each other's strengths and differences. Our team members are not afraid to rewrite the rules in hospitality in Berlin and bring their own unique expressions to the world of Victoria Tacos. We work hard and we work together to create an experience for our guests that keeps them excited to come back.

About the Role

As a Taco Assembly specialist, you are responsible for preparing accurate orders for each of our guests. You also coordinate with the Kitchen team to make sure you have all the ingredients needed to fulfill orders. You like to work fast, smart, and have a good time while doing it.

About the Team

Taco Assembly team members will work as a part of the Service team. The Service team is a dynamically structured team that enables members to rotate based on their skills and strengths. This could be taking orders from guests, assembling tacos, prepping ingredients or coordinating orders with the kitchen. The Service team is responsible for quickly delivering guests food and drinks without compromising quality or a warm sense of hospitality.
